

Hildegarde Hurde (née Ginsburg) was in Africa with her husband in the early years of 20th century

Emile Catherine Mackinder (née Ginsburg) was elder sister of Hildegarde, & probably also knew S. Africa briefly about the same time.

The inked alterations to the earlier script are in E.M.C.'s handwriting. These two sisters lived together (both having separated from their husbands) for the remainder of their lives (about 1919 - death in 1955 to 1962 (approximately)).

The later retyping (Top Cop) is clearly on a modern typewriter & done by an experienced typist

H.H. & E.M.C. were the elder sisters (by 8 & 10 years) of Sybil Gwendolyn Spottiswoode - Atkes - Lamb, - mother of Raymond & Nigel Spottiswoode (John S. died in WW1. 1914) General Atkes died in 1922/3. Francis Lamb died in 1950, & Sybil died 2 weeks later.
