

New St. Sy.

Aug 11 - 1899.

My dear Maggie:

The fireman, Slack, who was injured in the Grace Church St fire, has just been here. He said that he could not rest until he had thanked the two young ladies, personally, for coming to see him. I dare say you will tell Jennie; it was really very nice of her.

It is still rather hot in London
you must find the bathing place at Shere a great comfort.

I enjoyed my yachting in Scotland very much, I don't think I should have come back only
"I came over queer" as the soldiers
say. However I'm all right again.

your aff
John.
