My dear James, As you will see, I have re-invented the clip-board (Don't tell the Japs). I am at last back at Godrest Berwyn + am happier than I can imagine. Still a bit "life support" but this I'm sure will come in time. This is my first-private letter since I want you to know that in the nightmare flash ^{when} I ~~was~~ did not know whether I was alive or dead (presumably some critical moment in the op) it was the kindness + gentleness of your face which reassured me. + gave me strength. Please remember this all your life.

Love
Nigel
