Dear Mrs Ginsburg,

We only returned recently from a long journey in the East, & I have just heard of Dr. Ginsburg's death - with the deepest sorrow. I remember the many charming visits I paid to your house - during the last many years - & your great kindness to me always - & the wonderfully interesting talks I used to have with him in his library - His geniality & learning ~~were both a revelation to me -~~

I never went away from him without feeling that I had learnt something & that there was so much more to learn - & being at the same time encouraged & stimulated - He was one of the few really great scholars left - & it was a real privilege to know him - It is indeed a grievous loss to me & makes me regret all the more that I had not seen him & learnt from him more often of late - To-day I see that ~~D. Wright~~ is gone too - & in their death they are not divided - I send this to Oakthorpe, as I do not know any other address - but I hope, when you can, you will let me know of your future arrangements.

Believe me, with very true sympathy

Yours sincerely
A. Howley.
