He began his career as an actor and dancer in repertory stock companies, then went on to choreograph television shows for Jimmy Durante, Danny Thomas, Ed Sulnana Theater in Forth Worth, Tex-He is survived by his wife, Eileen, and their son, Running Bear.

For eight years he was coproducer and director for the Casa Ma-livan and Dean Martin.

Pasadena.

Donations may be made to the Jack Bunch Scholarship Fund at La Salle Catholic High School in

Elliott W. Galkin Dr. Elliott W. Galkin, 69, music critic, educator and conductor, died

Thursday at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore following a long illness. Galkin was a music critic for the Baltimore Sun for 15 years and was president of the Music Critics As-chestral Conducting in Theory And Practice." He was director of the Peabody Institute from 1977-82 and had also sociation from 1975-77. He wrote the 1989 book, "A History Of Or-been chairman of the music department at Goucher College in Baltimore. Galkin appeared as a guest conductor with the Baltimore Symphony and had been director of the Baltimore Chamber Orchestra.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth, and a brother.

Henry Kendrick

Henry Kendrick, veteran character actor, died April 12 of emphysema and pneumonia at St. Joseph's Hospital in Arizona. He was 56.

He worked in twond film most

Films he worked on included "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore," "Raising Arizona" and

"White Line Fever." He was a member of the Screen Actors Guild, Actors Equity and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists. He is survived by his wife, Kathryne, and a daughter. Donations may be sent to the "Henry Kendrick Scholarship" for actors at the University of Arizona.

Roger Barlow

Roger Barlow, 78, a documentary filmmaker and cameraman who also lensed several feature films, died May 9 at the U. of Virginia Medical Center in Charlottesville, Va., of complications from lymphoma.

GE Takes Charge Of MCEG Loan (Continued from Page 4, Column 1)

nection with the negotiation of the arrangement and related transactions, including obtaining financing for working capital and longterm financing requirements.

Under the previously announced restructured financing, which will be made effective as of May 1. 1990, the company's outstanding bridge and credit notes will be replaced with two series of notes.

The series A notes will carry significantly reduced interest rates, while the series B notes will contain an interest-payment feature that will reduce the cash needed by the company to make interest payments until May 1, 1992.